Melbourne Symphony Orchestra

The MSO has been part of Melbourne's cultural fabric since 1906, performing to countless audiences in Melbourne, Australia and abroad for more than a century.

Each year we share our music with hundreds of thousands of people through live performances, recordings, TV and radio broadcasts and live streaming. Our 2017 Season is a year of sensational music, one that we know our audiences will find exhilarating, entertaining and enriching.

As a truly global orchestra, the MSO collaborates with guest artists and organisations from around the world alongside the very best of Australia's musical talent. We are a part of the sound and the soul of our city, and we're excited to be sharing our passion with you tonight.

Kate Miller-Heidke

An award-winning singer-songwriter who traverses the worlds of contemporary pop, folk and opera, Kate Miller-Heidke is a true musical chameleon.

Trained as a classical singer, she has performed at New York's Metropolitan Opera and in 2015 had her work The Rabbits commissioned by Opera Australia. She released in December The Best of Kate Miller-Heidke: Act One, which includes her finest moments from albums like O Vertigo! and Nightflight, as well as previously unreleased material.

Be captivated tonight as Kate shows you why she's one of Australia's most talented musicians.
