GOVERNOR’S MESSAGE

MESSAGE FOR THE MELBOURNE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA’S 2016 ANNUAL REPORT

As Patron, I am proud of the MSO for its breadth of programming, its commitment to music education across Victoria, and its representation of us on the global stage.

From the soaring heights of Strauss’s Alpine Symphony to Handel’s mighty Messiah, season 2016 showcased the artistic brilliance of one of the world’s finest orchestras.

I am especially proud of the community engagement that the MSO achieved throughout 2016. With performances alongside artists like Hilltop Hoods and Missy Higgins, and collaborations such as the one with the AFL, the year certainly saw an extension of the MSO’s reach throughout our community.

Congratulations to the board, management, Chief Conductor and musicians for their continued dedication to the successes of the MSO. And thank you to the generous sponsors, donors, subscribers and supporters who made 2016 a year to remember.

The Honourable Linda Dessau AC
Governor of Victoria
Looking back over my first year as Chairman, 2016 was a challenging year for the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. As we entered the year, the search for a new Managing Director was underway, and the negative financial outlook from 2015 looked set to continue. On a positive note, the Orchestra was in great shape, continuing to perform to critical acclaim with strong support from all segments of our audience demographic, our donors, and our corporate partners. It was against this backdrop that the Board took decisive action to reduce the administrative cost base.

This was a difficult time for all our staff and, on behalf of the Board, I would like to thank them for their incredible commitment and support as we took the necessary first steps to restore the financial sustainability of the MSO.

The arrival of Sophie Galaise in April as the MSO’s first female Managing Director has been an extremely important and successful next step in this journey. Sophie has worked with the Board to establish a strategic vision built around four pillars – being an arts leader, a gateway to great music and musicians, a champion of music education, and deepening the engagement with all our communities. New appointments have been made to the senior leadership team. Significant progress has been made on reviewing all aspects of the organisation’s effectiveness. And the Orchestra has broadened its reach across our community, while continuing to maintain the highest level of artistic vibrancy.

The changes to achieve organisational effectiveness have positioned the Orchestra for sustained growth to ensure our current performance scale, quality and vibrancy can be maintained and enhanced. I am pleased to report that the operating result for the year was a profit of $761,000. Investment income and capital contributions to our Foundation reserves of $476,000 results in an operational profit of $285,000 for the year. This is a remarkable achievement for the MSO and all staff are to be commended for their hard work in achieving this result.

Our commitment to a sustainable financial base was reinforced by the retention of JBWere as our investment advisers, and the development of a long term investment strategy for our Reserves portfolio.

Under the baton of Chief Conductor, Sir Andrew Davis, and Associate Conductor, Benjamin Northey, performances of our core classical repertoire continued to be well received in Melbourne, regional Victoria and overseas (via our residency with the Shanghai Symphony Orchestra). At the same time, we continued to reach out to new audiences with a record year for special events returning an extremely positive net result, with the series of four sell-out Indiana Jones concerts (MSO at the Movies) the highest netting program in our long history. We will continue to explore ways of engaging with a broader demographic, while maintaining our commitment to performing our core classical repertoire at the highest artistic level. With the strong support of our patrons, the MSO education programs continued to provide opportunities for people of all ages across Victoria to learn more about the joy of music.

In 2016, we were delighted to welcome the Honourable Linda Dessau AC, Governor of Victoria, as Patron of the MSO and congratulate her on her Companion of the Order of Australia. Her support of the arts and education in Victoria is well recognised and we are fortunate to have her with us.

I would like to thank all Board Directors and members of our sub-committees and advisory panels for their work on ensuring the sustainability of our great Orchestra. I also wish to acknowledge Kee Wong, who retired from the Board in December 2016, and thank him for his important contribution to the MSO, in particular his support in governance and stakeholder relations.

I recognise the support of the Australia Council for the Arts and Creative Victoria, which is fundamental to our capacity to deliver this important art form, and thank them for their forbearance during this challenging period of transition.

Finally, thank you to our Principal Partner Emirates and all our other corporate supporters, our Patrons and Donors, all of whom give so generously to ensure our great Orchestra continues to do what it does best – inspire and engage audiences, and be an essential part of Melbourne’s rich cultural fabric.

MANAGING DIRECTOR’S REPORT

“Our music comes first, it’s our passion. It’s what drives us to be at the top of our game. It’s what gets us out of bed every morning...”

It is an honour to deliver my first report as Managing Director of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. After combining another year of artistic excellence with a strengthening of our financial position, I am delighted that 2016 saw the MSO return to surplus.

Since arriving at the MSO in April 2016 I have had the pleasure of working with MSO’s dedicated staff, our brilliant Chief Conductor in Sir Andrew Davis, our outstanding musicians and an engaged Board led by a new and experienced Chairman in Michael Ullmer. I have also been fortunate to work with our highly-valued donors and corporate partners whose continued support and passion for the work we do must be graciously acknowledged.

The MSO is an arts leader in Australia, and as such it has been exciting to work with not only the oldest orchestra in the country, but one that is still extremely engaged with a wide range of audiences.

There is no doubt that 2016 was a year of great challenge and structural change at the MSO. With an accumulated deficit, there were tough decisions to be made across all levels of the organisation. I thank everyone for their support, commitment and hard work through this transitional phase. The results speak for themselves.

Of course, the successes the MSO achieved throughout 2016 far outweighed the challenges. The MSO continued to play its central role in our artistic landscape, presenting a wide array of Australian and international guest artists and soloists, commissioning new works, and expanding our collaborations with like-minded performing and visual arts institutions. By securing a three-year partnership with the Shanghai Symphony Orchestra and delivering our first ever music camp in Yogyakarta we consolidated our position as a world-class orchestra and one of Asia-Pacific’s artistic leaders. We look to build on this international standing through 2017 and beyond.

While expanding our global footprint, we strive to engage our communities and 2016 also saw the MSO maintaining our high standards on the local arts scene. With 160 performances including 19 free performances, our role in Melbourne’s cultural industry is stronger than ever.

From our sell-out Jams for Juniors series and our Pizzicato Effect program for children in Melbourne’s outer north, through to our MUSO program (18-35 year olds) and Ears Wide Open Series, the MSO continues to be a champion of music education. All who work at the MSO are passionate about music, and it brings us great joy to witness people of all ages discover the wonders of orchestral music.

I could not have hoped for a better first year at the helm of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra. I thank all who have contributed to our successes, both on the concert stage and behind the scenes. Together, we will continue to be a gateway for great music and musicians, and that – as the MSO manifesto so eloquently puts it – is what gets us out of bed in the morning.

Sophie Galaise
Managing Director
A WORD FROM SIR ANDREW DAVIS
CHIEF CONDUCTOR

The Melbourne Symphony Orchestra is one of the world's great orchestras, and as I have said many times over my four years as their Chief Conductor, making music together is a real privilege. Through the dedication and commitment of our musicians to be the very best in their field, we have together achieved an intuitive and deep level of trust and willingness to collaborate. Our ability truly to recreate the music in front of our audiences means that no two concerts are the same. It is the most remarkable form of music-making and something very rarely achieved.

In our Mahler Cycle we have now established our own voice and our performances of the Fifth and Sixth Symphonies in 2016 testify to this. We also finished our Charles Ives Cycle with the most exciting and wondrous Symphony No.4, a concert received by the audience with such rapture, insight and understanding. The last CD in this cycle to appear on Chandos, with live recording of those concerts, as well as a studio recording of Symphony No.3 is already receiving critical acclaim here in Australia and internationally.

Over 13 weeks and nine programs with the MSO this season, I have again been fortunate to see the passion Victorian audiences have for their beloved Orchestra and the arts in general. On a personal note, Elgar's In the South is one of my favourite pieces and one I have conducted many times, yet I have rarely heard it achieve the sound the MSO was able to give me. There were works that were totally new to me, and I am not only talking about new pieces by Australian composers, like James Ledger's Hollow Kings, but also my first attempt to climb the colossal peak that is Beethoven's Missa Solemnis. A milestone in any conductor's career, I would not have wanted any other collaborators for this project than our own MSO and MSO Chorus. In short, despite conducting many wonderful orchestras all over the world, the MSO and its audience are my musical home. I am proud of the vibrant musical culture in this city and so should be all Melburnians, Victorians and Australians!

With an unwavering pursuit of artistic leadership and excellence comes a relentless determination to reach the top of our field. Through effort and hard work, internal consultation and review, and a celebrated synergy between Orchestra and Chief Conductor, the MSO is highly regarded across Australia and around the world. It is attractive to world-class conductors and soloists, can secure invitations to prestigious international music festivals and events, is assessed as having a high performance standard by visiting (and MSO) conductors and musicians, and receives praise for its reviewed performances.

EXTERNAL ASSESSMENT

MSO concerts continue to be reviewed in the media, and in 2016 received 156 critical peer reviews syndicated across Victoria and Australia. International reviews of MSO recordings are also monitored and in 2016, ten reviews were received. Three award nominations for MSO performances, including two Helpmann Award nominations and an ARIA Award win were also received.

MSO’s artistic and marketing departments survey audiences to gauge feedback around satisfaction, aesthetic growth and emotional engagement and, in 2016, all performance targets were exceeded.

- 90% Audience Satisfaction (up 10%)
- 74% Intellectual Satisfaction (up 4%)
- 86% Aesthetic Growth (up 16%)
- 84% Emotionally Engaged (up 14%)

MSO also reviews informal audience feedback received through letters, e-mails and via its website, verbal feedback at concerts, as well as via telephone and social media.

MSO IN THE MEDIA:

MSO and its artists appeared in the media close to 3,000 times in 2016 (20% increase on 2015).

Estimated media reach – 100 million people.

Estimated value (based on ASR Value) – $30 million (up 17% on 2015).

PEER ASSESSMENT

A new bi-annual peer review assessment process implemented in 2016 to measure artistic vibrancy returned strong results from the 40 journalists, music educators, performers, former MSO musicians and arts administrators surveyed.

- 83% believed MSO is an essential part of Melbourne’s cultural life
- 80% believed MSO attracts the world’s best artists
- 75% believed MSO was inventive and imaginative and delivered meaningful musical experiences
- 80% believed MSO makes classical music accessible and actively engages with different communities/cultural groups through diverse programming.

Visiting artists (both conductors and soloists) continue to provide feedback through informal discussions with the Director of Artistic Planning and/or the Managing Director. Where appropriate, this feedback is then tabled at the MSO Artistic Committee meetings for further review. Through these discussions, the MSO is able to obtain artists’ feedback about the performance of the Orchestra, and benchmark it against other orchestras with which the artists had performed.

The MSO also receives feedback from its recording partners. Each of the MSO programs recorded through ABC Classic FM receives a Live Music Production Advice which contains an assessment of the Orchestra’s performance, as well as feedback on its suitability for broadcast.

MSO Education and Community Engagement Programs also receive external feedback from a range of music education specialists, including teachers, academics, musicians, presenting partners and parents. Written feedback is also sought from teachers and students attending a variety of MSO Education Week concerts, and from program participants attending the Orchestra’s community engagement activities.
INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

The following MSO sub-committees are charged with the responsibility of meeting throughout the year to oversee the MSO’s internal review and self-assessment processes:

MSO Artistic Committee – comprised of management representatives, the Chief Conductor and/or artistic leader, Concertmaster and elected musicians, its main purpose is to review:

- All performances including soloists, conductors and programming choices
- Orchestral performance standards
- Audition processes
- Special projects
- Rostering issues
- Recording projects
- Annual repertoire and season plans
- Future artistic leadership issues.

MSO Players’ Committee – including the Players’ Executive, meets throughout the year with the Director of Operations. Members of the committee are elected on an annual basis by all Orchestra members.

Two MSO Consultative Committees – for musicians and administrative staff. The Musicians Consultative Committee consists of members of the Players’ Committee and Players’ Executive, plus management representatives.

The Staff Consultative Committee includes representatives from across the administration and senior management.

The committees’ roles include the discussion of day-to-day MSO operations as they relate to the Musicians and Staff Agreements.

MSO Chorus Committee – made up of eight singers and two management representatives, plus the Director of Artistic Planning, this committee meets to discuss issues of artistic quality and performance standards and provide written advice to the Board on Choral issues.

Occupational Health and Safety Committee – consists of two elected Health and Safety representatives from the Orchestra, plus the Director of Operations, Operations Manager, Production staff, Director of Human Resources and Chorus Manager.

The committee monitors standards of occupational health, safety and rehabilitation and initiates plans and procedures with a view to minimising the effects of workplace hazards.

The MSO continues to work diligently to maintain a formal and transparent procedure for managing the artistic proficiency of its orchestral musicians. This process continues to be refined.

Jeff Mills + Derrick May

‘The audience loved this pairing techno and symphony. Much of the night’s music were aural thought pieces as we sat quietly to appreciate the size, sound and complexity of the orchestration, but at other times we just got down and funky.’

Shane Murphy, Daily Review

Classical Year in Review: Passion, high-quality performances in superior efforts

‘It’s hard to recall a time when the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra worked to such consistently impressive interpretative and emotionally satisfying effect, particularly under Sir Andrew Davis. From a powerful Strauss Alpine Symphony, through Mahler 5 and 6 in the ongoing cycle, an authoritatively expansive In the South (Alassio) of Elgar, supporting James Ehnes in the amiable Strauss Violin Concerto and Richard Tognetti in his idiosyncratic and transporting version of The Lark Ascending by Vaughan Williams, the chief conductor raised his musicians’ operating temperature level significantly.

Much the same energetic verve recurred when Simone Young fronted a commanding and resonant Bruckner Symphony No.9, Jakub Hrusa introduced most of us to Suk’s Asrael, Christoph Konig revisited with flair the Brahms E minor Symphony, and Benjamin Northey brought out the best from the MSO Chorus in a luminous Faure Requiem. Almost as rewarding, Vadim Gluzman fronted the Brahms Violin Concerto, his fusion with Davis’ orchestral support exemplary; and, in Paul Lewis’ informed review of the Beethoven piano concertos, a group of 15 put together a riveting account of Schoenberg’s Chamber Symphony No.1.’

20 MSO CHORUS PERFORMANCES (14 WITH THE MSO / 6 FREE)
The MSO Chorus attracted an audience of 78,506 people across its season of MSO/stand-alone performances. Due to popular demand, a dedicated Choral series of concerts featuring the MSO Chorus was introduced for the 2017 season.

NEW NGV PARTNERSHIP
MSO and the National Gallery of Victoria are working together to present Art and Music, an annual series of performances/lectures that connect multi-sensory Arts experiences. Two events were held in 2016.

2 WEEK MSO BEETHOVEN FESTIVAL
Four concerts, 12 programs and a host of presenters and performers collaborated in this highly successful MSO Festival. In Hamer Hall, the NGV and open spaces of Melbourne’s Arts precinct, there were concerts, panel discussions, pre/post concert talks, even Jams for Juniors for the little ones. This extended festival was generously supported by Joy Selby Smith.

69 PRE/POST CONCERT TALKS AND INTERVAL CONVERSATIONS
Reaching an audience of 8,770 people interested in the wider context of life behind the music.

7 SALES OF MSO’S SELF-DEVELOPED ORCHESTRAL PRODUCTIONS
MSO self-developed product Babe in Concert was sold to Sydney, Tasmania, Canberra and Darwin Symphony Orchestras, as well as the New York Philharmonic. Receiving high praise in The New Yorker, this was MSO’s first commercial sale outside of Australia. Similarly, Tripod: This Gaming Life was sold to Adelaide Cabaret Festival and Adelaide Symphony Orchestra.

3 AWARD NOMINATIONS / 1 WIN
2 Helpmann Award nominations – ‘Best Australian Contemporary Concert’ (Flight Facilities with MSO, Melbourne Festival) and ‘Best Symphony Orchestra Concert’ (Britten’s War Requiem), and an ARIA award win for ‘Best Classical Recording’ for our performance with Flight Facilities.

13 COMMERCIAL HIRES, UP FROM 5 IN 2015
MSO hire for the Hilltop Hoods concert at Rod Laver Arena in April was reportedly Australia's biggest hip hop concert based on a capacity audience attendance.

The MSO attracts the very best artists from Australia and across the globe, as guests and musicians. Developing the talent of emerging artists through professional development, competitions, commissions and collaborations serves to build our art form for future generations.
In 2016, the MSO presented a colourful program in which familiar masterworks were often put in a new light.

Sir Andrew Davis pursued his Mahler Cycle with Symphonies No.5 and 6. The combination of Mahler’s Fifth Symphony and Ravel’s Piano Concerto for the Left Hand, magnificently played by Pierre-Laurent Aimard, was absolutely an artistic highlight. The Ives Cycle drew to a close with performances of the monumental Symphony No.4, contrasted on the same program by an early Haydn symphony and Rachmaninov’s Paganini Rhapsody. In the ongoing Strauss-series, Sir Andrew Davis conducted the evocative Alpine Symphony.

Beethoven’s five piano concertos were the central theme in a 2-week festival with British pianist Paul Lewis. Here, Beethoven’s music was presented as the turning point between the ‘classical style’ of the late Haydn and the development into a new world sound at the beginning of the twentieth century (the so-called Second Viennese School).

In the Metropolis New Music Festival, the MSO concentrated on music about cities. In two programs, works from composers as different as Steve Reich, Heiner Goebbels, Olivier Messiaen and Barry Conyngham evoked the soundscapes of large cities. In contrast, vocal works by renaissance composers Clement Janequin and Orlando Gibbons rubbed shoulders with Luciano Berio.

As always, some of the world’s greatest artists performed with the MSO: Pierre-Laurent Aimard, Lars Vogt, James Ehnes, Jakub Hrůša, Nelson Freire, Simone Young, Stuart Skelton and Michelle DeYoung, to name but a few. And the BBC Proms started a new initiative in Melbourne with the MSO as core partner: a short version of the famous Proms including the Last Night, conducted by Sir Andrew Davis.

MSO COMMISSIONS OF AUSTRALIAN WORKS (8)

Developing our art form by commissioning new works for the classical canon provides our artists and musicians with opportunities to innovate and create. MSO initiatives such as the Metropolis New Music Festival, Cybec 21st Australian Composers Program, University of Melbourne Composers Workshop, and from 2017 new Composer/Young Composer in Residence programs are central to our commissioning strategy and fuel our annual commitment of five or six new works per season.

Our ability, in our role as cultural ambassador for Australia, to re-program new Australian commissions later in current or subsequent seasons, and potentially in an international touring schedule continues to remain a MSO priority.

CHAMPION OF MUSIC EDUCATION

Image: Education Week
The MSO believes in the power of music education as a tireless campaigner for the rights of all people to access and learn music. The MSO recognises that music is essential in every child’s education and that the arts play an important role in developing the future skills of Australia’s communities. We provide opportunities for people of all ages to discover, explore, and learn more about music through performance, workshops and online experiences.
In 2016, the MSO presented 25 programs and initiatives through education and community engagement to reach more than 41,000 people, almost 10,000 of those via digital channels directly linked to core programming.

EDUCATION WEEK
- 15 concerts and workshops over five days
- 11,824 Live Audience reach
- One in four students (28%) from low socio-economic schools attended Education Week through access initiatives including Arts Centre Melbourne’s First Call Fund and MSO Sponsored Schools program.
- 4,800 Digital reach via the ABC Splash live stream of Meet the Orchestra (double that of 2015), with an additional 2,027 page views of ABC Splash online resources across the year. Meet the Orchestra is made possible by The Ullmer Family Foundation.

THE PIZZICATO EFFECT
- 14 languages spoken by students of The Pizzicato Effect, MSO’s flagship community program which provides free instrumental tuition to children living in the City of Hume.
- In its new format, 70 children from 20 schools enrolled in the program and participated in 528 workshop sessions.
- Three public performances were held for the school/Hume community attracting a total audience of 500 people.
- Five senior Pizzicato Effect students attended Melbourne Youth Orchestras’ Summer School on fully-subsidised scholarships.

ENGAGING OUR COMMUNITIES

Image: MSO performs at the Sidney Myer Music Bowl
The MSO engages with communities in person and online, in the city and outer suburbs of Melbourne, within regional Victoria, across Asia and the world. It does this by listening to, understanding the needs and expectations of, and delivering on its commitment to its stakeholders, its audiences and its people.
ENGAGING OUR COMMUNITIES

Regardless of cultural background, age, gender or ability, regardless of where they live or what they earn, all Victorians are entitled to see themselves reflected in our cultural life. The MSO is eager to fuel diverse arts practice from artists of many cultural backgrounds and collaborate with its partners to develop and present work that reflects the cultural diversity of Melbourne and Australia.

In line with Victoria’s 2016 China Strategy, the MSO is building stronger engagement with China and Asia by developing and extending ‘connections through reciprocal, cultural partnerships, and establishing new platforms for people to people engagement.’ A number of high profile artists from across Asia featured broadly across the 2016 season in key MSO series. Celebrated conductor Tan Dun returned for the third successive year for our Chinese New Year Concert. A highlight on Melbourne’s cultural calendar, the Chinese New Year Concert (supported by the Li Family Trust) continues to attract enormous diplomatic support from the Consul General of People’s Republic of China in Melbourne, Ambassador of People’s Republic of China and the Chinese Ministry of Culture, abundant sponsorship support and concertgoers from Victoria’s Chinese Community.

“The workshop was AMAZING!! Hard to tell which was better, the whole orchestra or the actual workshop. Excellent in its hands-on activities, the presenters were very engaging and child friendly and so close up and personal for the students. A ‘once in a life time’ opportunity for some!”

Across metro and regional rankings, The Wiggles Meet The Orchestra was the 4th highest rating kids program on ABC Kids TV for 0-4’s and 0-12’s, between January and October 2016. ABC Kids is Australia’s #1 children’s TV station. A fantastic result for MSO given the number of high-profile kids properties that air on ABC Kids.

ARIA Award Win
Along with rave reviews in The Australian, Herald Sun and The Age, and a Helpmann Award nomination for ‘Best Australian Contemporary Concert’, MSO was proud to be acknowledged for our collaboration with Flight Facilities with an ARIA Award.
FOCUS ON OUR PEOPLE
Over the last 12 months, the MSO has focused on building organisational culture, collegiality and capability through a variety of activities that celebrate our people.

With the generous support of Joy Selby-Smith, the MSO has provided structured orchestral leadership and professional development training and coaching to groups and individuals across the orchestra and administration. MSO’s new ‘Adopt a Musician’ program was also developed as part of the new strategic vision to build closer connections between our loyal donors and MSO musicians. Launched in July, 11 MSO musicians were adopted through philanthropic contributions. Our aim, over time, is to have all MSO musicians ‘adopted’.

There has also been substantial development and updating of HR policies and procedures, and implementation of a structured, KPI-focused performance review process, which will continue on an annual, ongoing basis for all non-orchestral employees. Closer alignment between orchestral, administrative and Chorus staff under the mantle of ‘one orchestra’ has been similarly rewarding.

Together with the arrival of our new Managing Director Sophie Galaise, the MSO welcomed Karen Soennichsen, Director of Marketing, and David Martin, Director Sales and Commercial Partnerships to the Senior Management Team in 2016.

Underpinning all HR activities is a clear and continued focus on reinforcing a unified company culture, based on company values and shared corporate KPIs. Building a unified sense of purpose and commitment to company success, regardless of individual role is a clear priority.

We greatly value our all of our partners and remain committed to delivering to our partner’s business objectives and building sustainable long-term relationships. Emirates continues as Principal Partner of MSO, an association which has existed since 2002. This successful relationship has been renewed for an additional 3-year term from 2017.
As a not-for-profit organisation, Melbourne Symphony Orchestra relies on our community to help fulfill our mission of providing exceptional musical and educational experiences to Melbourne and greater Victorian. We are truly grateful to the many individuals and private trusts and foundations who choose to contribute to the MSO.

We also recognise the extraordinary commitment of our Patrons, whose philanthropic gifts of $1,000 or more, and Conductor’s Circle members, those who have told us they have left a gift in their Will to the MSO, enable us to continue our vital work in the community. MSO Patrons and Conductor’s Circle members are invited to get even closer to the music through special events throughout the year. In 2016, these events included dinner with Vadim Gluzman at the Australia Club, a backstage supper with Paul Lewis, the annual Symphony Gala, as well as private open rehearsals and post-concert and interval drinks functions.

MSO ANNUAL REPORT 2016 47
CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

This statement outlines the MSO’s corporate governance practices and compliance in line with Australia Council for the Arts’ Eight Essential Governance Principles for Arts Organisations (Dec 2015), adapted from the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, 3rd edition 2014, ASX Corporate Governance Council and ACNC Governance standards for Charities.

To ensure sound governance of the organisation, the MSO Board works to:

1. Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
2. Structure the Board to add value
3. Act ethically and responsibly
4. Ensure diversity
5. Safeguard integrity in all reporting
6. Engage with stakeholders
7. Recognise and manage risk
8. Remunerate fairly and responsibly

In 2016, the primary role of the Board of Directors was to guide the implementation of the MSO’s strategic objectives in order to address the immediate structural deficit facing the organisation and secure a long-term, financially-sustainable future for the Orchestra. To achieve its goal, the Board sets and monitors the management of performance outcomes, oversees changes to the organisation’s structure, ensures the integrity of internal controls and processes, and approves and monitors financial and other reporting.

Key activities undertaken by the Board in 2016 included the induction of new Managing Director Sophie Galaise; a review and approval of a revised business strategy 2016-2020 incorporating mandate for international touring; a review of Board sub-committees and their respective charters; and the ongoing review of the organisation’s risk management framework. The MSO continues to refine its diversity policy to reflect the communities it engages with. In establishing measurable objectives for achieving diversity in the areas of, but not limited to, gender, age, ethnicity, disability and cultural background, the MSO will be able to assess and report on its progress and achievements.

Throughout the year, the Board delegates the management of the organisation to the Managing Director and Senior Management team, and governs each of the MSO’s significant business streams, supported by Board sub-committees. Membership of the sub-committees includes Board members, Senior management and external representatives as required. The Chair of each sub-committee acts as a Board interface by representing the Board and reporting back at full Board meetings.

The current sub-committee structure includes five sub-committees, each chaired by a different Board member, with the following areas of responsibility:

1. Governance Committee – Chair, Margaret Jackson
   - Overall governance
   - Board recruitment, division of roles and performance
   - Succession planning
   - Managing Director assessment and compensation

2. Finance Committee – Chair, Andrew Dyer
   - Audit
   - Earned income streams
   - Organisational risk
   - Review of management framework
   - Driving diversity in audiences, government funding, performance revenue streams/profitability

The MSO’s Finance Committee oversees the organisational risk compliance reporting, and ensures the financial records of the MSO have been properly maintained. It reviews the short- and long-term financial position and performance of the Orchestra, ensuring this is based on a sound system of risk management and internal control.

3. Foundation Committee – Chair, David Krasnostein
   - Contributed revenue streams
   - The structure of the MSO Foundation
   - Development portfolios: Philanthropy, Corporate Sponsorship, Trusts and Foundations
   - Fundraising campaigns
   - MSO investments and investment strategy

The purpose of the Foundation Committee is to raise and accumulate capital to ensure the long-term viability and financial security of the MSO, and to fund special initiatives.

4. Stakeholder Relations Committee – Chair, Helen Silver
   - Community and Government relations

5. Education and Community Engagement Committee – Chair, Danny Gorog
   - Strategy and assessment of effective programs and policy
   - Champion for Music Education – advocacy

The MSO sets out an expectation that directors are deeply connected to the mission of the organisation, and as a result will participate in and support the Company’s operations, for example as a subscriber and by regular attendance at special events.

MSO directors’ positions are on an honorary basis, and non-executive directors and the Company Secretary do not receive remuneration for their roles as directors of the Company.

A summary of Board skills, which includes the mix of professional competencies and diversity of its membership, is updated with each Board appointment. Currently, the MSO Board includes directors with a range of skills including:

- Not-For-Profit
- Arts Management
- Finance and Accounting
- Business and Commercial Experience (Public Companies and Small Business)
- Law
- Government Relations
- Marketing
- Governance
- Music
- Sustainability
- Fundraising
- IT & Digital

An MSO staff-appointed director is also included on the Board, elected for a two-year term. The full list of Board directors is included on pages 40 to 43.

The operating result for the year ended 31 December 2016 was a surplus of $761,727 (equivalent result for the year ended 31 December 2015 was a deficit of $577,653). Overall ticket sales decreases were offset by increases in revenues from sponsorships, and grants and trusts. ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATION
The Company’s operations are not subject to any significant environmental regulations under either Commonwealth or State legislation. However, the Board believes that the Company has adequate systems in place for the management of its environmental requirements and is not aware of any breach of those environmental requirements, as they apply to the Company.

LIKELY DEVELOPMENTS
The Company will continue to present performances of symphonic and other orchestral music during the next financial year. The Company is focusing on building its philanthropic and corporate sponsorship income.
DIVIDENDS
No dividends were paid, declared or recommended during or since the end of the financial year.

INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE OF OFFICERS AND AUDITORS

Indemnification
Since the end of the previous financial year, the Company has not indemnified, nor made a relevant agreement for indemnifying against a liability, any person who is or has been an officer or auditor of the Company.

Insurance premiums
During the financial year, the Company has paid premiums in respect of Directors’ and officers’ liability, legal expenses and insurance contracts. Since the end of the financial year, the Company has paid or agreed to pay premiums in respect of such insurance contracts for the year ended 31 December 2016. Such insurance contracts insure persons who are or have been directors or officers of the Company against certain liabilities (subject to certain exclusions).

Directors have not included details of the nature of the liabilities covered or the amount of the premium paid as such disclosure is prohibited under the terms of the contract.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. CORPORATE INFORMATION

The financial report of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2016 was authorised for issue in accordance with a resolution of Directors on 18 April 2017.

The Company is a proprietary limited company incorporated in Australia. The ultimate parent of the Company is Melbourne Symphony Orchestra Holdings Limited (MSOHL).

MSOHL is a public company limited by guarantee and was incorporated in Australia on 19 October 2006 and subsequently purchased all shares in the Company from the Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) for $10.

The nature of the operations and principal activities of the Company are described in the Directors’ Report.

2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of preparation

The financial report is a general-purpose financial report, which has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Australian Charities and Not for Profits Commission Act 2012, Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements, Urgent Issues Group Interpretations and other authoritative pronouncements of the Australian Accounting Standards Board.

The financial report has been prepared on the basis of historical costs and, except where stated, does not take into account changing money values or fair values of non-current assets.

These accounting policies have been consistently applied by the Company and, except where there has been a change in accounting policy, are consistent with those of the previous period.

Where necessary, comparative information has been reclassified to achieve consistency in disclosure with current financial year amounts and other disclosures.

The financial report is presented in Australian dollars.

b) Statement of compliance

The Company has adopted AASB 1053 Application of Tiers of Australian Standards and AASB 2010-2 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards arising from Reduced Disclosure Requirements for the financial year beginning on 1 July 2013.

The Company is a not-for-profit, private sector entity which is not publically accountable. Therefore, the financial statements for the Company are tier 2 general purpose financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards – Reduced Disclosure Requirements (AASB – RDRs) (Including Australian interpretations) adopted by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) and the Australian Charities and Not for Profits Commission Act 2012.

The adoption of AASB1053 and AASB 2010-2 allowed the Company to remove a number of disclosures. There are no other impacts on the current or prior year financial statements.

c) Revenue recognition

Revenues are recognised at fair value of the consideration received net of the amount of Goods and Services Tax (GST) payable to the taxation authority. Exchanges of goods or services of the same nature and value without any cash consideration are not recognised as revenues.
2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Ticket sales
Ticket sales are recognised at the time of concert performance. The value of tickets sold in advance of each concert is recorded as prepaid ticket sales and recognised as a liability.

Sponsorship revenue
Sponsorship revenue is recognised during the period in which sponsorship benefits are provided. Sponsorship revenue is traditionally paid in advance – the value of unearned sponsorship revenue is recognised as a liability.

Government funding revenue
Funding revenue comprises funding from the Federal Government through the Australia Council for the Arts, the State Government of Victoria through the Ministry for Creative Industries and the City of Melbourne.

The current tripartite funding agreement between MSOHL, the Australia Council for the Arts through the Major Performing Arts Board, and the Victoria Ministry for Creative Industries, through Creative Victoria, is for a period of three years ended 31 December 2018. Refer to note 23 “Economic Dependency” with respect to funding secured for 2017.

Funding revenue is recognised when due under the terms of the funding agreement. Special purpose funding, which requires the Company to fulfil an obligation outside its normal operations, is recognised at the time the obligation is fulfilled.

Government grants
Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received. Government grants relating to costs are deferred, held as unearned revenue, and recognised in the profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that they are intended to compensate.

Interest revenue
Interest revenue is recognised on a time proportionate basis that takes into account the effective yield on the financial assets.

Income from financial assets classified as available-for-sale
Income from financial assets classified as available-for-sale is recognised when receivable. Dividends are recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

Sale of non-current assets
The gross proceeds of non-current asset sales are included as revenue at the date control of the asset passes to the buyer, usually when an unconditional contract of sale is signed.

The surplus or deficit on disposal is calculated as the difference between the carrying amount of the asset at the time of disposal and the net proceeds on disposal.

Donations, bequests and grants
Donations collected, including cash and goods for resale, are recognised as revenue when the company gains control, economic benefits are probable and the amount can be measured reliably.
2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

d) Income Tax and Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The Company is exempt from income tax as it is an exempt charitable institution in accordance with Subdivision 50-B of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the taxation authority. In these circumstances, the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables are stated with the amount of GST included. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as a current asset or liability in the Statement of Financial Position. Cash flows are included in the statement of cash flows on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are classified as operating cash flows.

e) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents, including short-term deposits with a maturity of three months or less, are carried at face value of the amounts deposited. The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, including short-term deposits, approximate net fair value.

f) Receivables

Trade receivables, which generally have 30-90 day terms, are recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less an allowance for any impairment.

Collectability of trade receivables is reviewed on an ongoing basis. Debts that are known to be uncollectible are written off when identified. An allowance for doubtful debts is raised when there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect the debt. Management consider such objective evidence to include, but not be limited to formal correspondence from a trade receivable indicating its inability to repay the amount outstanding.

g) Other financial assets

Other financial assets as at 31 December 2016 are externally managed investment portfolios classified as available-for-sale and measured at fair value in the manner described in Note 11.

Gains on individual assets arising from differences between carrying amount and fair value are credited directly to the Available-for-sale Reserve, except that, to the extent that an increment reverses a revaluation decrement in respect of that asset previously recognised as an expense in the Surplus / Deficit, the increment is recognised immediately in the Surplus / Deficit.

Losses on individual assets arising from differences between carrying amount and fair value are recognised immediately as an expense in the Surplus / Deficit, except that, to the extent that a credit balance exists in the Available-for-sale Reserve in respect of the same asset, are debited directly to the Available-for-sale Reserve. Revaluation increases and decreases of different assets are not offset against one another.

Other financial assets as at 31 December 2015 were term deposits that did not meet the definition of cash and cash equivalents. These financial assets were recorded at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method where the amount is materially different from the face value of the term deposit. Otherwise, the term deposits were recorded at face value.

h) Impairment of non-financial assets other than goodwill

Intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset’s carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of an asset’s fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered impairment are tested for possible reversal of the impairment whenever events or changes in circumstance indicate that the impairment may have reversed.

i) Plant and equipment

All items of plant and equipment are carried at their historical cost of acquisition, being the fair value of the consideration provided plus the incidental costs directly attributable to the acquisition, less any accumulated impairment losses, less accumulated depreciation, and recoverable amount.

Subsequent additional costs

Costs incurred on assets subsequent to initial acquisition are capitalised when it is probable that future economic benefits, in excess of the originally assessed performance of the asset, will flow to the Company in future years.

Costs that do not meet the criteria for capitalisation are expensed as incurred.

The residual values, useful lives and amortisation methods of all items of plant and equipment are reviewed and adjusted if appropriate, at each financial year-end.

Intangible assets

Costs incurred in developing products or systems and costs incurred in acquiring software and licences that will contribute to future period financial benefits through revenue generation and/or cost reduction are capitalised to software and systems. Intangible assets include the online ticket system on the Company’s website and Tessitura Customer Relationship Management (CRM) ticketing system. Costs capitalised include external direct costs of materials and service and payroll related costs relating to the time spent by those employees’ directly engaged on the project. Amortisation is calculated on a straight line basis over 3 years.

IT development costs include only those costs directly attributable to the development phase and are only recognised following completion of technical feasibility and where the group has an intention and ability to use the asset.

j) Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are not transferred to the company as lessee are classified as operating leases (notes 8 and 21). Payments made under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Comprehensive Income on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.
2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

k) Depreciation

Useful lives
Items of plant and equipment, leasehold improvements, computer equipment, motor vehicle and musical instruments are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Assets are depreciated from the date of acquisition. Depreciation rates and methods are reviewed annually for appropriateness. Depreciation is expensed.

The depreciation rates used for each class of asset are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Asset class</th>
<th>Depreciation rates</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Plant &amp; equipment</td>
<td>10% - 30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leasehold improvement</td>
<td>10% - 33.3%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Motor vehicle</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

l) Payables

Trade payables and other payables are carried at amortised cost. They represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Company prior to the end of the financial year that are unpaid and arise when the Company becomes obliged to make future payments in respect of the purchase of these goods and services. The amounts are unsecured and are usually paid within 30 days of recognition.

m) Employee benefits

Employee benefits comprise wages and salaries, annual and long service leave, and contributions to superannuation plans.

Wages, salaries and annual leave
Liabilities for wages and salaries expected to be settled within 12 months of balance date are recognised in other payables in respect of employees’ services up to the reporting date. Liabilities for annual leave in respect of employees’ services up to the reporting date which are expected to be settled within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related services are recognised in the provision for annual leave. Both liabilities are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled.

Long service leave
The provision for employee benefits to long service leave represents the present value of the estimated future cash outflows to be made by the employer resulting from employees’ services provided up to the reporting date.

The provision is calculated using estimated future increases in wage and salary rates, including related on-costs, and expected settlement rates based on turnover history and is discounted using the rates attaching to corporate bonds at balance date which most closely match the terms of maturity of the related liabilities.

n) Critical accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts in the financial statements. Management continually evaluates its judgements and estimates in relation to assets, liabilities, contingent liabilities, revenue and expenses. The following critical accounting policies have been identified for which significant judgements, estimates and assumptions are made.
2. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Provision for employee benefits
Probabilities regarding staff turnover, when staff take leave and future wage rates are based on historical experience.

o) Marketing costs
Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred.

p) Comparatives
Where a change in accounting treatment has resulted in significant differences between financial years, prior year data has been reclassified to assist comparison.

The MSO Reserves Incentives Scheme (RIS) is designed to encourage and assist major performing arts companies to strengthen their balance sheets by building reserves to a level that is sufficient to underpin their financial health and provide a base to take on appropriate artistic and access risks.

The Australia Council and the Victorian Government have, together with the Company, contributed funds which are set aside, unencumbered and subject to the terms and conditions of the Reserves Incentives Scheme Funding Agreement. All income received on the funds received must be re-invested with the funds received and held in escrow for 15 years. These funds are not accessible to the Company until 3 June 2019 and have not been used to secure any liabilities of the Company.

During 2016 Australia Council approved MSO accessing part of these funds to assist with the costs of organisational restructure.
23. ECONOMIC DEPENDENCY

Provision of federal and state funding via the parent company, MSOHL, to the Company is in respect of funds payable as a result of the Orchestra Review Implementation Funding Agreement. It originates from federal and state governments, through the Australia Council for the Arts and the Victoria Ministry for Creative Industries and is paid to MSOHL. A funding agreement between MSOHL and the Company provides the basis for the funds to be passed to the Company. As a result, the company is economically dependent on MSOHL, and in turn, on the Australia Council for the Arts and the Victoria Ministry for Creative Industries.

A tripartite funding agreement between MSOHL, the Australia Council for the Arts through the Major Performing Arts Board, and the Victoria Ministry for Creative Industries, through Creative Victoria was entered into for a period of three years ending 31 December 2018.

This funding is subject to the Company continuing to comply with the terms of the relevant agreement and providing certain financial reports on a monthly basis.

24. CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

There were no contingent liabilities as at 31 December 2016 (31 Dec 2015: Nil).

25. MATTERS SUBSEQUENT TO THE END OF THE FINANCIAL YEAR

No matter or circumstance has arisen since 31 December 2016 that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect:
(a) the Company’s operations in future financial years; or
(b) the results of those operations in future financial years; or
(c) the Company’s state of affairs in future financial years.

Independent auditor's report to the members of Melbourne Symphony Orchestra Pty Limited

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Melbourne Symphony Orchestra Pty Limited (the Company), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 31 December 2016, the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies, and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the Company is in accordance with the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012, including:

a. giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as at 31 December 2016 and of its financial performance for the year ended on that date; and

b. complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of the Directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission Act 2012 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.
Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
