Schools Photography Release Form

The Melbourne Symphony Orchestra works with resident photographers to best capture the highlights from the Education and Community Engagement Season. We would appreciate if you complete the below form for your group and submit with your booking form. It is the school's responsibility to obtain individual permissions for each student. If you have exemptions within your group (i.e. students who cannot be photographed) we recommend that, if a small number, you proceed to approve the release form noting these students in the relevant section below. If you are uncomfortable to approve release for your school please return this form completing the relevant section below outlining that you do not grant permission.
